

Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct is composed by the institute management. The Principal upholds the prescribed code of conduct and values which states that the principal and staff should be a dynamic, committed, impartial, cordial and ethical leader who convenes meetings of statutory and non –statutory bodies, monitors curricular and extracurricular activities, supervises the maintenance of the campus infrastructure, ensures rapport between the management and the Campus Community, addresses the grievances and insists on discipline , punctuality and accountability among staff and students. Students follow Sarva Dharma Prayer every day, Which helps them to develop respect for all the religions.

Code of conduct for teachers-The Principal monitor and ensure through feedbacks and performance appraisals that the teachers uphold the prescribed code of conduct and values which states that they should be pleasant, refined, industrious, devoted, cooperative, impartial, affectionate and non –judgmental.

For Students and stakeholders- the principles, which governs the behavior. It is the first step towards creating an ethical institutional culture. Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of discipline and dignified manner inside and outside the campus. They should abide by the rules and regulations of the college. They should act in a way that highlights the discipline of the college. They should contribute for the community development programme and act as socially responsible citizen.