Stress: Force per unit area
Normal stress: The normal component of a force acting on a surface per unit area
Shear stress: The tangential component of a force acting on a surface per unit area.
Pressure: The normal stress in a fluid at rest
Zero shear stress: A fluid at rest is at a state of zero shear stress.
 When the walls are removed or a liquid container is tilted, a shear develops as the liquid moves to re-establish a horizontal free surface.

The normal stress and shear stress at the surface of a fluid element. For fluids at rest, the shear stress is zero and pressure is the only normal stress.

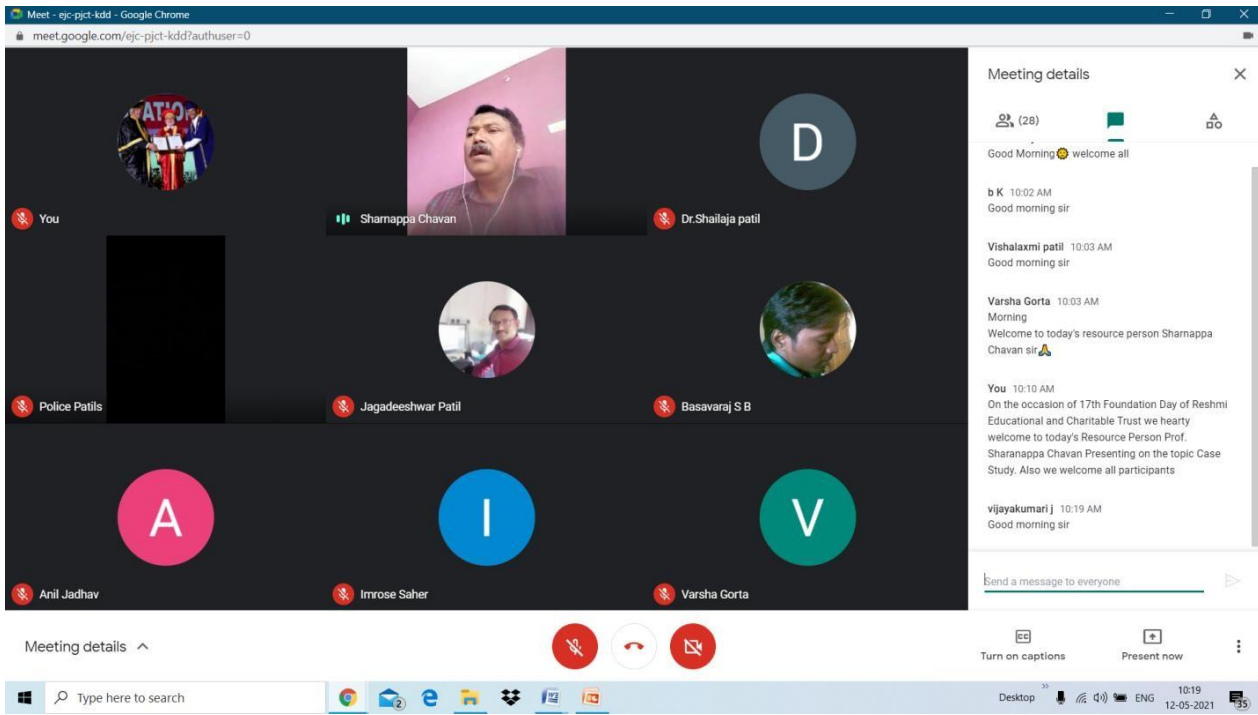

Normal stress: $\sigma = \frac{F_n}{dA}$
 Shear stress: $\tau = \frac{F_s}{dA}$
